Quarterly Report

The company reported results for the quarter. Revenue grew across every segment while costs stayed flat. Management repeated its guidance for the year and noted strong demand. Retained earnings increased to $27.9 billion. The company reported results for the quarter. Revenue grew across every segment while costs stayed flat. Management repeated its guidance for the year and noted strong demand.

Second left paragraph. It talks about debt and interest payments over the next decade. Second left paragraph. It talks about debt and interest payments over the next decade.

Right column text about free cash flow of $2.0 billion and capital spending plans. Right column text about free cash flow of $2.0 billion and capital spending plans. Right column text about free cash flow of $2.0 billion and capital spending plans.

Second right paragraph about share buybacks and the dividend policy for next year. Second right paragraph about share buybacks and the dividend policy for next year.

Second page. The operating margin widened to 18 percent while inventory fell. Second page. The operating margin widened to 18 percent while inventory fell. Second page. The operating margin widened to 18 percent while inventory fell.